History

Founded by the Sisters of the Sacred Heart in 1858, Barat College began as the Barat Academy for Young Women. In 1904, the school moved to its Lake Forest campus, where it was chartered as a four-year women's college in 1918. In the 1950s, the Lower School separated from the College and became Woodlands Academy of the Sacred Heart. The Order of the Sacred Heart turned over control of the college to a secular Board of Trustees in 1969. Throughout the 1970s, Barat developed its emphasis on the arts, including pioneering programs in dance and theater. In 1982, it began admitting male students. In questionable financial condition, Barat College formed an educational alliance with DePaul University, becoming Barat College of DePaul University in 2001. The financial issues could not be overcome by DePaul, and Barat College of DePaul University ceased operations on June 30, 2005.

Description of the Collection

The Barat College Archives are arranged into five record series: Administrative Files, Academic Files, Publications, Buildings, and Photographs. Although there are a few photographs and documents that date from the early 1900s, the bulk of the collection covers the 1960s through the 1990s.

The Administrative Files are separated into a number of subcategories: Governance, Faculty Topic Files, Associated Colleges of Illinois, Federation of Independent Illinois Colleges and Universities, Development, Admissions, Financial, Lake Forest Correspondence and Subject Files, Correspondence with other Colleges and Universities, Administrative Topic Files, and Student Affairs. The Governance subcategory is the largest and includes incorporation documents such as the Mother Jane Fox Charter Petition, Board of Trustee meeting minutes, North Central Accreditation files, Presidential Planning Committee and Faculty Assembly. There is not a comprehensive record of the Barat College Presidents. There is one file of correspondence from Mother Margaret Reilly's term dated 1954. The presidencies of Sister Judy Cagney, RSCJ (1975-1982), Tilden Batchelder, Interim Chief Operating Officer (1982-Spring 1983), Richard Soter (1983-1988) and Lucy Morros (1988-1999) are documented to some extent.

Academic files include the following subcategories: Commencement, Course Schedules, Academic Departments, Library, and Topic Files. The Theatre Department files document the numerous plays and performances produced during the years 1950-1993. The theatre files are organized chronologically and then alphabetically by title of the play and contain programs, flyers, and occasional photographs and productions notes.

Publications include items published by Barat College, its faculty, or students including the academic bulletin, school newspaper, literary publications, and the year book. The student newspaper was called The Heurist from 1967-1974, The Cedar (see Barat Cedar in the container list) from 1977-1984, and The Barat Journaux from 1988-2004. Literary magazines for Barat College were titled Écrivez and Forest Leaves.

The Barat College Buildings files include documents relating to the construction and maintenance of facilities on the Barat Campus in Lake Forest. Files are organized alphabetically by building or subject matter, then chronologically. The Barat College Photographs contain assorted pictures of life at Barat College from the time that the Academy of the Sacred Heart began the move to Lake Forest until the merger with DePaul University, 1903-2001. The photographs are stored alphabetically according to subject matter. Early photographs of the college are filed under the heading, Historical. Oversized photographs, as well as audio-visual materials and slides, are at the end of the collection.

Provenance

Accession #2002.06. The Barat College Archives were transferred to the DePaul University Special Collections and Archives after the education alliance between the two institutions was formed in 2001. Files documenting this transition will processed at a later date. Please consult a member of the Special Collections and Archives staff if you would like to consult these records.
