Policy for Use of Library Classroom, Room 233

The primary purpose of the Mookini Library Classroom is to support the library instruction program, which serves all academic departments of the University of Hawai‘i at Hilo and Hawai‘i Community College. The secondary purpose of the Library Classroom is to provide additional computer access for students at the discretion of library staff.

To support these purposes, the following policy has been established:

- The Library Classroom can only be used for library instruction sessions and other library-related activities.
- The Library Classroom is not available for other purposes, classes, meetings, etc.
