Series Descriptions

Series 001: Students
Date Range: 1898-2000
Bulk Dates:
Quantity: 1.33 LF

Scope:
The Students series includes images of students on campus, student events and student organizations, and alumni. Highlights of this series include the photograph of the first student body, students in science labs, nuns playing soccer, and the Black Student Union takeover of SAC. Photographs of DePaul's R.O.T.C. cadets, Vietnam Memorial Masses, anti-war protests, and the staff of the Alethia, DePaul's alternative newspaper established in 1968, have been gathered together under the topic, Wars and Wartime. Prior to the University's Centennial celebration in 1998, Lorraine Bond donated copies of her photographs taken during the mid-1940s when she was a student at DePaul. Her photographs document lively groups of students in front of DePaul buildings, on the el tracks, and at local college hang-outs.
Arrangement:
Arranged alphabetically by subject, then chronologically within each subject category.
