History

In 1964, the College of Theology at St. Mary's of the Barrens moved to Lemont, Illinois on land donated to the Vincentians by Arthur J. Schmitt, a DePaul University Board of Trustee member. The Vincentians were already leasing portions of the property for a minor seminary using buildings previously occupied by the Fournier Institute which closed in 1955. After numerous meetings, the Society of Priests of the Congregation of the Mission of Chicago and the Arthur J. Schmitt Foundation reached an agreement regarding the donation of nearly 300 acres. Although the Society of Priests was familiarly known as the "Vincentians at DePaul" it was independent of the University and was the organization that held the Lemont property in trust for Congregation of the Mission of the Western Province until the early 1970s.

The Aims and Methods of DeAndreis Seminary, drafted in 1964 by Rev. James Fischer, C.M., were influenced by Vatican II and the philosophy of 'aggiornamento' which translates to mean 'updating'. The changes recommended by Vatican II forced religious communities to reexamine the traditional forms of seminary education and expressions of faith. Examples of the ways in which the faculty and students of the DeAndreis community created a new identity for their seminary included the campus architecture, closer interactions of student priests with their superiors, more flexibility in social activities, ministries that focused on community outreach, and participation in consortiums with non-Catholic seminaries. The first Rector of DeAndreis Seminary was Rev. Joseph Falanga, C.M. (1964-1968). In November 1968, Fr. Joe Falanga was named Vice-Provincial Superior in Los Angeles. Rev. Nicholas Persich, C.M., the Academic Dean, was appointed Acting Rector for the remaining school year.

Rev. Francis Gaydos, C.M. assumed the responsibilities of Rector in the summer of 1969. In 1970 the Bishop of Joliet asked DeAndreis to accept students from his diocese as candidates for the priesthood. This partnership continued until 1983. On October 14, 1971 the DeAndreis Seminary became incorporated as a not-for-profit institution. This enabled the transfer of the property to DeAndreis from the Society of Priests of the Congregation of the Mission of Chicago (Vincentians at DePaul) on February 20, 1973. In August 1973, the property was annexed to the village of Lemont. Another significant development occurred in 1971 when DeAndreis became a founding member institution of a consortium known as the Chicago Cluster of Theological Schools which permitted cross-registration, library cooperation, and interfaculty retreats. The next rector to serve, Rev. Anthony Falanga, C.M. (1975-1981), was actively involved with the Chicago Cluster of Theological Schools and the Midwest Association of Theological Schools as a board member. During Fr. Falanga's administration an institutional self-study was submitted to the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). A two-year provisional accreditation was granted by ATS in 1979. The provisional status was due in part to the uncertain future of the seminary. Around the same time of the self-study and accreditation visit the Governing Board for Common Formation[1]decided to initiate a total review and evaluation of the programs of

[1] The Governing Board of Common Formation, established during Rev. Cecil Parres' term as provincial in 1975, was the body through which the three provinces of the Western Region of the United States (Province of the Midwest, Province of the West, Southern Province) exercised their responsibility for the Houses and Programs of Common Formation, namely, the Initial Year, College, Novitiate and Theology.

common formation. Based on the outcome of these deliberations the decision was made to close DeAndreis Seminary and move the common-formation theology program of the Western region to St. Thomas Theological Seminary in Denver, Colorado. Rev. John Rybolt, C.M. succeeded Fr. Tony Falanga in 1981. The three years of his administration were occupied with the closing of the seminary and the transition of the formation program to DeAndreis House in Denver, Colorado. The last ordination was held on June 2, 1984 and the final liturgy was celebrated on June 9th.

Description of the Records

The records of the DeAndreis Seminary, Lemont, Illinois span the dates 1954 to 1987. The records are divided into six categories: Lemont Property Files, Administrative Files, Academic Files, Student Files, Photographs, and Oversize Materials. Administrative Files are further divided into the following subcategories: Planning, Governance, Vincentian Community Life, Rectors' Correspondence, and Subject Files.

The Lemont Property Files (Boxes 1-5) document the donation of the property, the eventual annexation to Lemont, numerous deeds/surveys, and the final sale in 1987. The acquisition of the Lemont property involved complex negotiations between the Vincentians and the Arthur J. Schmitt Foundation which began in 1955 and are recorded in a series of letters and legal agreements. The sale of the property involved numerous steps because the original donation of 300 acres was conveyed over a period of ten years in fractional portions for tax purposes. Also included with these files is a history of the founding of DeAndreis Seminary written in 1967 by Rev. James Fischer C.M., Provincial. This detailed account as well as the correspondence between Fr. Fischer and Rev. Commerford O'Malley, C.M. relates the various interests of the Vincentians, the Archdiocese of Chicago, DePaul University, and the Arthur J. Schmidt Foundation in the eventual establishment of a seminary in the Chicago area (Box 1, Folder 1).

The activities of the Provincial Council and the faculty of St. Mary's of the Barrens in regard to the move of the College of Theology from Perryville, Missouri to Lemont, Illinois are documented in the Administrative Planning subcategory. When the decision was made to create an "aggiornamento" seminary a distinct curriculum was required. The document known as "Aims and Methods" (Box 6, Folder 7) written by Fr. Fischer summarizes the philosophy and objectives of the seminary which was directly influenced by Vatican II. Because the design of the buildings also reflected the new direction of the seminary program the correspondence between St. Louis architect, Ralph Ranft, and the Vincentians is included in this subcategory. One distinct feature of the campus was the chapel, inspired by one constructed in Fort Wayne, Indiana for Concordia Senior College.

Governance and Vincentian Community Life at DeAndreis Seminary is recorded in the Board of Trustees meeting minutes, visitation reports, and the meeting minutes of several house committees. The Certificate of Incorporation and correspondence with the State of Illinois Office of Public Instruction/Board of Education are also included in this subcategory. Processors retained the original house committee names used by Vincentian archivists and filed the folders chronologically (Boxes 7 and 8). Rules and Regulations for both students and faculty include student director memos from the 1960s, guidelines distributed in the 1970s, and faculty handbooks from the late 1970s and early 1980s.

Rector's Correspondence is divided into two subcategories. The first is arranged chronologically by the rectors' term of office and further subdivided according to subject or individual correspondent. Although all five rectors or superiors are represented, Rev. Anthony Falanga's correspondence which dates from 1975 to 1981 makes up the bulk of this subcategory (Boxes 9-11). The second grouping consists of the correspondence of several rectors with the same external organizations such as the Archdiocese of Chicago, Association of Theological Schools, Chicago Cluster of Theological Schools, and the Midwest Association of Theological Schools. These letters are filed alphabetically by the name of the organization and then further grouped either chronologically or by subject (Boxes 12-14).

The DeAndreis Family was a philanthropic group of family and friends who supported the administration by raising funds for the seminary. The files documenting the activities of this group have been gathered together in a subcategory of the Administrative Files titled Subject Files. The correspondence, reports, meeting minutes documenting the seminary's transition to Denver in 1984 are also filed in this subcategory (Box 15).

Academic Files include self studies compiled for accreditation purposes, faculty meeting minutes, formation field education program materials, course catalogues, class schedules, and school calendars (Boxes 16 to 19). Student Files includes rosters, enrollment figures, a student diary, records of various student groups, ordination programs, and alumni surveys. The student newsletter called the DeAndrean, local newspaper clippings which cover the 20 year span of the seminary, and the Book of Memories project files are in Publications. Rev. Lawrence "Larry" C. Brennan, C.M. compiled a tribute to the DeAndrein experience titled Book of Memories which included photographs and recollections of alumni, faculty, staff, and students. This publication provides a good historical overview of the twenty year period of the seminary.

DeAndreis Seminary is well represented by photographic documentation of the major activities involved in the building of the campus from groundbreaking to dedication (Boxes 22-27). Also included are many photographs of ordinations, individual deacons and seminarians, as well as various seminary activities. Pictures of events hosted by the DeAndreis Family and people such as Cardinal Sidarouss, C.M. and the Hermanas Josefinas are also part of this category. The Josefinas sisters were employed at the minor seminary, St. Vincent de Paul, and DeAndreis Seminary to provide domestic services for the priests and students. Oversize materials have been separated and are in Box 28. These include the color sketches of the stained glass windows of DeAndreis Chapel, the DeAndreis Seal, and a scrapbook.

Separations and Related Collections

The Governing Board of Common Formation correspondence, meeting minutes, and reports were separated and added to Hugh O'Donnell's Provincial Files. Related collections include Records of St. Vincent de Paul Seminary, Lemont, Illinois; DePaul University Biographical Files, Arthur J. Schmidt; DPU Archives, Fournier Institute: Quest for Leadership the Arthur J. Schmidt Story (SPC 658.40092 S294Ys 1985)
